

3rd April, 1962.

Dear Professor Lederberg,

It is nice to hear from you and I too much enjoyed your visit to Carradale. I will certainly do what I can for Dr. and Mrs. Levinthal and their children when they come in July. Perhaps you will ask him to let me have his London address in due course and tell him that if they want to see this place, the best plan is to come on a mutually convenient morning between Monday and Thursday inclusive, to stay to lunch and see the House in session afterwards. Let him suggest a date when the time comes.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'J. H. Mitchem'.

Professor Lederberg,
Stanford University,
Palo Alto,
California.